Tru Values Program

VERSION 1.2 3/93

YOUR VALUES are the behavior and activities to which you are naturally drawn. Values are who you really are. This includes things like:

- Creating • Contributing
- Adventure • Beauty
- Teaching • Spirituality

The complete list of over 150 values follows.

The Tru Values™ Program helps you to understand values, discern your top 4 values and puts you on a path to honoring them.

This 3-phase, 25-step process can take up to 2 years to complete - not because it is difficult -rather, because you have to handle other aspects of life in order to be able to distinguish the subtlety of values and then re-orient your life around them. This takes time. I say that to honor your values is to give yourself the ultimate gift.

I recommend you work through the Clean Sweep™ and NeedLess™ Programs prior to or concurrently with the Tru Values™ Program. Your values are not as clear when clouded by incompletions and unmet needs. I also recommend that you work with a Professional Coach trained in Values work. You can do this on your own, but you will complete this program more quickly and more fully with a trained coach who has completed the process him/herself.

THE TRU VALUE PROCESS

PURPOSE OF PROGRAM The purpose of the Tru Values

Program is to help you to:

1. Identify what your true values really are
2. Design and complete a Values Expression Project
3. Reorient your life around expressing these values.

WHAT ARE TRU VALUES?

Values are things you do or that you find very attractive. When engaged in these activities, you feel most like yourself: Well, connected, excited, glowing and effortless. We like these things, but most of us lead lives which do not grant us the chance to JUST do these things. We may be too busy with "responsibilities", incompletions, chasing unmet needs, just getting by, etc. In order to honor your Tru Values, you will have to substantially alter and enhance your life to get the room you need to engage in this ideal life.

Many of us spend our lives trying (consciously or not) to honor these Tru Values. We find ourselves getting upset or frustrated, bored or resigned, wishing and hoping to have a better life -- this better life is, among other things, based on your Tru Values.

Will you give yourself the best gift ever? Embark on this program and don't stop until you reach 100 points. Your Professional Coach can assist you to more fully understand the dynamic of values and the steps to have them expressed and honored.

INSTRUCTIONS

Please read these instructions twice. We have condensed what was a 5-page instruction sheet into a single page, so read carefully and let the subtleties show themselves.

PHASE 1 - SELECT 10 VALUES

Read the list of 150+ values and circle approximately 10 which resonate as a value for you. You are looking for a VALUE, not a want, a should, a fantasy or a wish. A value is a MUST for you to BE YOURSELF. Part of the first step is to TELL THE TRUTH about what you ACTUALLY VALUE or LOVE to do with your time. This may be the first time you have ever admitted this to yourself. Some of these you will know innately. Others require some straight looking. PLEASE be willing to "try on" words you might normally skip over. These may be hidden values; If so, you may have one or more of the following reactions:

- No, no, no; that would be too much fun!
- That's a silly value; I should have a better one.
- If that is true, I'd have to change my life a lot!
- Flush, blush or shake when reading the word

Got the idea? Good. Now circle the 10 words which you believe to be Tru Values. Ask yourself: "If I had this, would I be naturally turned on, without efforting?" (work yes, struggle no)

PHASE 2 - NARROW DOWN YOUR VALUES TO 4

We all value a little of everything listed on this page. But we want you to pick the 4 Tru Values from the ones you circled. You may wish to compare each of your 10 with each other and ask yourself "Now, do I really prefer X or Y? Which ones aren't that intriguing to me anymore? Which ones, when honored, make the other ones not as exciting?"

Please choose your 4 Tru Values and write them on the front panel where indicated.

PHASE 3 - DESIGN A LIFE WHICH HONORS & EXPRESSES YOUR VALUES

Now that you have your Tru Values identified, you will want to design a way to have them all expressed, forever. This process has 3 parts as described below.

HONOR YOUR VALUES

When you honor your values, you honor your Self or Higher Self. Values are those activities you naturally engage in when your life is in great shape. Until this time, you may be expressing (like doing) your values, but they are not being honored. To honor your values means to design and live your life in such a way that there is nothing in the way of you living your values. This means a life of integrity, free of addictions or attachments, all needs met, complete about the past, a full and supportive community - like an ideal life.

Some people engage in this values process as a way to get a great life: "I want to honor and express my values, so I am changing x, y and z!" they exclaim. Hey, whatever reason you use to put your values FIRST is great. Look for examples of the kind of changes I am talking about on the last page of this program handout under Step 7. Choose 3 of these changes to begin fully honoring your values.

EXPRESS YOUR TRU VALUES THROUGH A PROJECT

Now that you've cleared the decks and upgraded your life so your values can play, it is time to come up with a fun project which gives your values a showcase - a way to get stimulated and used; a way to show yourself that living your values is both possible and fulfilling. (Fulfillment is the experience of life one has when values are honored and expressed.)

This project shouldn't have any shoulds about it. Don't pick one that will drive you crazy, one that you are not ready for (but "should be"), one that you think you should want, but really don't. Rather, design a project that lets you play big or play well, effortlessly. Examples are in Step 11 on the last page of this handout. Design a project that brings out your best, naturally. Don't do a project in order to "get something" out of it. Do it because you enjoy it.

ALIGN YOUR GOALS WITH YOUR VALUES

After finishing your values expression project, you are ready for the final phase - aligning your life goals with your values. In other words, being at the place in life where you can afford to set only those goals which honor or express your values. This assumes you're close to 100 on Clean Sweep and NeedLess programs. But wow, what a place to be at in life! The alignment steps are:

Step A. Make a list of your 10 goals for this year.

Step B. Make a list of your top 10 values.

Step C. Match the goals with the values.

NOTE: The objective here is to only have value-based goals this year. If you have a goal that does not "fit" with one of your top 10 values, either adapt the goal to fit the value or GET RID OF IT and come up with another. Don't adapt the value to the goal. And only have one goal per value. You are using your values as the reference point in your life - not your goals. And that is what makes this process so exciting!
